

Ready Set Work Victorian Public Service

Great opportunity to start your career path!
Employment opportunity in the Public Service with Victoria Police

Are you a woman from a culturally and linguistically diverse background?

Are you interested in working in the Victorian Public Service for the Victoria Police?

Jesuit Community College is pleased to partner with Victoria Police where we work together to provide training and employment opportunities for entry-level public service roles for the Victoria Police.
Women 45 years or over are encouraged to apply.

These opportunities include

- Enrolment in our preparation for employment short course (2 days per week over 7 weeks).
- Attending real interviews conducted by Victoria Police Staff.
- Real openings for employment in the Victorian Public Service for the Victoria Police.

Prerequisites

- Full Australian working rights
- Willing to undergo a police check and language, literacy and numeracy assessment
- Eligible for government funding*

Do you have to pay?

*There is no cost if you are eligible for Adult Community & Further Education (ACFE) funding. For more information on eligibility please go to Adult Community Further Education ACFE

For more information about this opportunity and to register your interest, contact our enrolment officer on 0498 594 731 or email courses@jss.org.au by 5pm 12 February 2024.